

No Time For Charity

You say great man need luxury
Something to be proud of
Showing they`re about to rise
You say that riches guarantee
A happy sunny lifetime
So you`re always diving in
You`re not the one who lingers
Sticking out his fingers
Smiling while you grab what you can
You`d even cheat your mother
Just like any other
Scoring judges give you a ten
No time for charity
No time for charity
No time for charity
That`s your motto all the way – come what may

You say you never compromise
Everybody out there
Tries to get his share as well
You say you hate to moralize
People who are sleeping
Have no chance to keep the ball
You`re not the one....
No time for charity
No time for charity
No time for charity
That`s your motto all the way – come what may
